

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,
v.
JOSHUA DAVID FINK,
Defendant.

Case No. CR16-477
ORDER OF DETENTION

I.

The Court conducted a detention hearing:

- On motion of the Government [18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)] in a case allegedly involving a narcotics or controlled substance offense with maximum sentence of ten or more years.
- On motion by the Government or on the Court's own motion [18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(2)] in a case allegedly involving a serious risk that the defendant will flee.

The Court concludes that the Government is not entitled to a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure

1 the defendant's appearance as required and the safety or any person or the
2 community [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(2)].

3 II.

4 The Court finds that no condition or combination of conditions will
5 reasonably assure: the appearance of the defendant as required.

6 the safety of any person or the community.

7 III.

8 The Court has considered: (a) the nature and circumstances of the offense(s)
9 charged, including whether the offense is a crime of violence, a Federal crime of 10 terrorism, or involves a minor victim or a controlled substance, firearm, explosive,
11 or destructive device; (b) the weight of evidence against the defendant; (c) the 12 history and characteristics of the defendant; and (d) the nature and seriousness of 13 the danger to any person or the community. [18 U.S.C. § 3142(g)]. The Court
14 also considered all the evidence adduced at the hearing, the arguments of counsel,
15 and the report and recommendation of the U.S. Pretrial Services Agency and its 16 recommendation of detention.

18 IV.

19 The Court bases its conclusions on the following:

20 As to risk of non-appearance:

21 Lack of bail resources and no known sureties
22 No stable residence or employment, including recent periods of 23 homelessness
24 Previous violations of probation and release conditions, to 25 include reinstatement of criminal proceedings following
26 defendant's noncompliance with drug court deferrals

As to danger to the community:

Nature of previous criminal convictions, which include convictions for drug offenses, and extensive history of arrests and law enforcement contacts

Allegations in complaint

Substance abuse

V.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the defendant be detained until trial.

The defendant will be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant will be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel. On order of a Court of the United States or on request of any attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined will deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
